Edward Murphy, a plasterer, forty-three years old, of 414 East Forty-seventh street, was brought to York-ville Court to-day in a patrol wagon, attired only in his underclothes, which were covered with blood. He appeared to be on the verge of delirium tremens street, near First avenue, at 1.30 o'clock this morning in undress attire and blood flowing from a wound on his right wrist.

He was too drunk to give an intelligent account of himself, and was faint from loss of blood. The officer hurried him to the Flower Hospital, where the wound was dressed.

He then said that he received the cut by sticking his hand through a plategass window, but either would not or could not tell where it occurred. The doctor said the cut looked as though it had been done with a knife.

The doorman in the station-house says Murphy shot his (Murphy's) wife ten years ago. Mrs. Murphy recovered from
